

Raggy Charters

Get Involved to Algoa Bay & Addo Canyons Projects

Every fin tells a story. Every sighting advances science. Every adoption helps protect marine life in Algoa Bay.

Common dolphin and calf, Algoa Bay

01. Volunteer Program - Fieldwork Research Assistant

a. International Volunteering

- Online courses/Workshops
- Survey trips

Programme	Fee*
4 weeks	2.000€/month
8 weeks	1.750€/month; 3.500€ total ⇒ save 500€
12 weeks	1.666€/month; 5.000€ total ⇒ save 1.000€

*Fee includes:

02. Accommodation

03. Water and electricity

04. Transport (International driving licence required)

b. Local Membership Volunteering

- Become a Ocean Protector Member
 - Digital membership card
 - Quarterly conservation newsletter
 - Invitations to online talks
 - Access to member-only updates
 - Annual impact report
 - Early access to field reports
 - Name listed on supporter wall
 - Newsletter access
 - Behind-the-scenes conservation updates
 - Annual conservation supporter certificate
 - Priority volunteer opportunities
- Complete training courses / Online Courses
- Jump on board on our daily survey trips, help us to monitor the bay, and get all your trips 30% off on the price all year round.

Programme	Donation*
Membership Volunteering for 6 month	R850 (45€)
Membership Volunteering for a year round	R450 (25€)

* Monthly donation

Online Course / Workshops:

Online Course	Description Course
Introduction to Raggy Charters and its Research Projects

Introduction to marine fauna in the bay and its ecology
Identification of marine fauna during sightings
Introduction to data collection and focal-follows
LogSheets and Data Management
Photo-identification Course 1 - How to capture a dorsal/fluke fin
Photo-identification Course 2 - Photo-ID and Cataloguing Aerial Photogrammetry Course 1 - How to take a drone footage
Aerial Photogrammetry Course 2 - Morphometrics analysis
Introduction to GIS Data	?¿

Extra: OPEN Water PADI Licence with Local Dive Center ?¿